Plural Endings- -s, -es

Dear Parents,

In word study this week, we will be working on plural nouns and adding –s and –es to verbs. We will be learning which words need –s added to the end and which words need –es added to the end. Words ending with x, sh, tch, z, and s need an –es ending for easy pronunciation.

-s- girls, holidays, keys -es - foxes, buzzes, glasses, eyelashes

Students should study the 10 assigned pattern words below for the spelling test on Friday. On the final test, there will be an additional 10 words that contain the spelling patterns studies this week. Student are not expected to study those words ahead of time. Please assist your child in preparing for the test by making sure he or she completes the attached word study homework packet.
