List 1: CVC Words- Short

Dear Parents,

In word study this week, we are practicing words that have short vowel sounds, like in the words bag, win, and get. We will be reviewing Consonant-Vowel-Consonant words (CVC words) to differentiate between the short vowel sounds

A = bag E = get I = dig O = fox U = gum

At home, you can help your child practice making words that contain the following word families.

Word Families: -at, -ad, -et, -ab, -ap, -as, -ig, -ix, -it, -un, -ox, -op, -ug, -ut

Students should study the 10 assigned pattern words below and the 5 high frequency words for the spelling test on Friday. On the final test, there will be an additional 10 CVC words that contain short vowel patterns as well (for a total of 25 words). Students are not expected to study those words ahead of time. They will apply their knowledge of word families and vowel sounds to NEW words. Please assist your child in preparing for the test by making sure he or she completes the attached word study homework packet.

3 Minute Math

Set a timer for three minutes. You can even use the timer on the microwave or oven. Complete as many of the addition problems as you can. When the three minutes are up, circle the last problem you did and record how many problems you completed. Then go back and finish any problems that are left.

Record the number of problems you completed in three minutes below. Try your best and don't worry if you don't finish all 50 at first. The more you practice, the more problems you will finish.
